

⚓ Anchors Away Weekly ~ January 8 ⚓

Mrs. Chrisley~ELA

This week we will begin our new novel Ida B. We will work on understanding a character's thoughts, feelings, and actions as they respond to challenges and identify how the author uses similes, personification and alliteration within the text.

Spelling words for this week are words that end in -ge and -dge. Our spelling test will be on Friday,

Science/SS/Writing

This week we are continuing our unit on community helpers and leaders. We will have a test on Thursday.

This week we are beginning explanatory writing. This style of writing is used to explain how or why something is done. Students will become familiar with the explanatory rubric.

Mrs. Shealy~Math

In math this week, we will continue our double and triple digit subtraction unit. This week we will focus regrouping using manipulatives and writing it on paper by "crossing out and borrowing."

Quiz: Friday

Important Log Update:

We have several students who have reached 100% fluency with their addition facts. When your student reaches 100%, they will no longer have to complete their addition log. If they have flash cards from the school, those will be needed to be returned. A letter will be sent home to notify you if your child is done with their log. You will still do the reading part of your log.**
