

Mrs. Dorn's News January 8, 2018

PBL: We are starting a new unit in Science on weather and will begin a new PBL soon about weather! Details will be forthcoming.

Mathematicians: We will be doing prime and composite numbers at the beginning of the week and moving into fractions towards the middle of the week. We will have Math MAP testing on Friday.

ELA: We are finishing up Dear Mrs. LaRue today, and will take an open book test tomorrow. On Wednesday, we will begin the novel, Toliver's Secret. This ties in with the American Revolution, which we have started studying in Social Studies.

Guided Reading: We will be reading digital articles on the students' levels to start getting them prepared for the SC Ready test, which was taken on the computer last year. We will also be practicing taking quizzes that go along with the articles to practice test taking skills.

Social Studies: We have been studying the Stamp Act and will begin learning about the Boston Massacre and Boston Tea Party later this week.

Upcoming ...

Monday -

Tuesday - ELA test, SS quiz on the Stamp Act

Wednesday -

Thursday -Library Day

Friday - Math MAP testing

Shoutouts: Way to go Jackson for earning 100% fluency in 0-10 times tables on Reflex math!